Chief Executive Officer

CEO, published author, and neurodivergent advocate with 25 years of experience building organisations that connect people through creative expression and shared identity. Founded and scaled The Author Incubator from a single programme to a $50M+ global enterprise supporting 2,000+ writers, then made a deliberate transition toward mission-driven, community-centred work. Currently leads the Autistic Culture Institute, a UK-based non-profit whose Neurodivergent Narratives and Podcast Network programmes use writing and storytelling to build connection and community among neurodivergent people. Brings deep personal knowledge of the writing and publishing industry alongside operational and commercial experience to build financial resilience, diversify income, and develop strategic partnerships. A Bloomsbury author, podcast host, and public speaker whose work on Autistic identity and creative culture has reached international audiences.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Autistic Culture Institute Founder | Director

- Structured partnerships with authors, influencers, and organisations to co-create and distribute content
- Designed experiences (live + digital) that functioned as both product and marketing
- Negotiated and managed complex relationships between creators, teams, and audiences
- Built and scaled a multi-channel B2C growth engine generating $50M+ in cumulative revenue
- Achieved consistent multi-million-dollar annual revenue without reliance on a single channel
- Led ongoing growth experimentation, testing messaging, offers, channels, and pricing
- Managed performance across campaigns with direct accountability for conversion and ROI

AppAssure Software Chief Marketing Officer

12/2008 – 09/2010

- Drove 3x revenue growth, with marketing contributing 56% of total company revenue
- Led cross-functional collaboration between marketing, sales, and leadership teams
- Implemented lead nurturing, scoring and drip campaigns with Marketo and Salesforce.com with focus on content marketing and inbound marketing
- Planned and executed a marketing communication program that generated immediate brand awareness including winning several prestigious industry awards
- Built a marketing database that resulted in 527 new customers. With a qualified lead to close rate 8%.
- Produced over 1,000 leads per month (36% qualified by sales). Improved lead yield over 150% and cut cost per lead by 300%

Bain Capital Portfolio CMO-in-Residence

AppAssure was a part of a portfolio of Bain Investments which shared resources so I was empowered to create systems that were applied across a dozen companies.

- Supported high-growth companies on commercial strategy, growth, and go-to-market execution
- Worked with leadership teams to scale revenue systems and improve performance

Voxant / Grab Networks

VP & General Manager, Long Tail Network

- Wrote the Go-to-Market strategy for a high-growth digital video content distribution platform in the summer of 2005 and was hired to fulfill the brief after the start-up was funded.
- Successfully ramped from close to 0 to one million monthly video impressions within six weeks, grew the publisher network to 20,000 in 6 months, and won promotion to VP. Took charge of the P&L for sub-network, Commission Videos.
- Led campaigns that boosted market presence and achieved numerous awards for Voxant, including: WEBBY – News Category; SIIA's CODiE award for Best Video Content Aggregation Service; and STEVIE AWARD Finalist for Best Press Room.
- Tasked with growing the company value through market share. The initial valuation for the first round of funding was $11M. Valuation grew 700% and led to a powerful, industry game-changing merger within 3 years.
